The Journal of Business Research (JBR) is intended to be an outlet for theoretical and empirical research contributions for scholars and practitioners in the business field. JBR invites manuscripts particularly in the areas of accounting, buying behavior, finance, international business, management, marketing, and risk and insurance.

JOURNAL OF BUSINESS RESEARCH - Elsevier

The Journal of Business Research applies theory developed from business research to actual business situations. Recognizing the intricate relationships between the many areas of business activity, JBR examines a wide variety of business decisions, processes and activities within the actual business setting. Theoretical and empirical advances in buyer behavior, finance, organizational theory and behavior, marketing, risk and insurance and international business are evaluated on a regular basis.

Due to the standards of double-entry bookkeeping, journal entries typically involve a debit to one or more accounts and a credit to one or more accounts in the same amount. For example, the journal entry for the purchase of a $20,000 fleet vehicle might reflect a $20,000 increase in assets and a corresponding $20,000 decrease in cash.
