

an introduction to pentecostalism pdf

The central belief of classical Pentecostalism is that through the death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus Christ, sins can be forgiven and humanity reconciled with God. This is the Gospel or "good news". The fundamental requirement of Pentecostalism is that one be born again. The new birth is received by the grace of God through faith in Christ as Lord and Savior.

Introduction. In contrast to the Roman Catholic Church, where interpretation of scripture is carried out by the Pope and his Bishops, Protestantism encourages "Private Interpretation"™ of scripture by the individual. As a direct result, differing denominational groups have emerged, each holding to distinctive doctrines. Each regards itself as part of the "Invisible Church"™ i.e. the union ...
